ISTE Students' Chapter Activities

ISTE Students' Chapter MITS is conducting "TalentHive" an online technical fest which not only includes coding competitions to create a platform for demonstrating their technical skills but also we will focus more on a technical interview to connect the students with an expert. The aim is to instil a desire for technical expertise, rational thinking, logical thought process and astute decision-making. It exemplifies the knowledge of students from all the departments of various institutes and exhibits their technical brilliance.
